VDR opened

Project Sunshine VDR is now open to all buyer candidates.

22 May 2019, 09:23
New Start-page

Virtual Data Room (VDR) has been updated with a fresh new Start-page. On the left side of the Start-view you can find common information about the VDR and a link to User Manuals. This information is available to all VDR users. In the center part of the screen there's a list of recently opened documents that's User specified. There's also a News-listing on the right side where you can notify Users about project schedule or changes in documents, for example.

You have now successfully logged in to the Virtual Data Room.
